Section 106. Legislative Districts, continued. The seventeen legislative districts as previously bounded and described by Local Law No. 2-1991 shall continue as such for the limited purpose of continuing in office the legislators presently elected from said districts and shall cease to exist as such on January 1, 2004. For the purpose of the general election of 2003 and all other purposes, except as herein provided, the County of Erie is divided into fifteen districts described as contained in section one hundred five herein.

ARTICLE II LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

Section 201. County legislature constituted. Until December 31, 2003, the county legislature shall be composed of seventeen members who shall be elected one from each of the seventeen legislative districts set forth in section one hundred five of Local Law 2-1991. Effective January 1, 2004, the county legislature shall be composed of fifteen members who shall be elected one from each of the fifteen legislative districts set forth in section one hundred five hereof. The county legislators representing the seventeen or fifteen legislative districts heretofore or herein created, as the case may be, when lawfully convened shall constitute the county legislature, which shall be the legislative and governing body of the county.

Section 2. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or article of this local law shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such determination shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section or article thereof directly involved in the proceeding in which such adjudication shall have been rendered.

Section 3. The clerk of the Erie County Legislature is hereby authorized and directed to cause a copy of the foregoing local law to be published in the county's official newspapers.

Section 4. This local law shall take effect immediately upon filing with the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 27 of the New York State Municipal Home Rule Law after approval by the electors of the County of Erie in accordance with the requirements for conducting a referendum.
