Local Law No. 21 of the year 2002

MISCELLANEOUS
& STATE RECORDS

Introduced by Council Members Reed, Comrie, Diaz, Rivera and Weprin (by request of the Mayor)

A LOCAL LAW

To amend the New York city charter, in relation to changing the name of the organized crime control commission to the business integrity commission.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. The chapter heading of chapter 63 of the New York city charter, as added by vote of the electors on November 6, 2001, is amended to read as follows:

[ORGANIZED CRIME CONTROL]
BUSINESS INTEGRITY COMMISSION

§ 2. The section heading and subdivision a of section 2100 of the New York city charter, as added by vote of the electors on November 6, 2001, are amended to read as follows:

[Organized crime control] Business integrity commission.

a. There shall be [an organized crime control] a business integrity commission, which shall consist of a full-time chairperson appointed by the mayor and of the commissioners of the department of business services, the department of consumer affairs, the department of investigation, the police department and the department of sanitation, or their designees.

§ 3. Subdivision a and the opening paragraph of subdivision b of section 2101 of the New York city charter, as added by vote of the electors on November 6, 2001, are amended to read as follows:

a. The [organized crime control] business integrity commission shall be responsible for the regulation of the trade waste industry, the shipboard gambling industry, the fulton fish market distribution area and other seafood distribution areas and the public wholesale markets. In regulating such industries, areas and markets, the commission shall have the powers and duties conferred by this chapter and such other powers and duties as are conferred by law.

b. The powers and duties of the [organized crime control] business integrity commission shall be exercised in a manner consistent with all local laws governing the regulation of the trade waste industry, the shipboard gambling industry, the fulton fish market distribution area and other seafood distribution areas and the public wholesale markets and shall include but not be limited to the following:

§ 4. Section 2102 of the New York city charter, as added by vote of the electors on November 6, 2001, is amended to read as follows:

§ 2102. Cooperation with other agencies. The [organized crime control] business integrity commission shall provide such assistance to the mayor and other agencies as requested and shall establish liaison and information-sharing arrangements with other law enforcement, prosecutorial, investigative and regulatory agencies as it deems appropriate.

§ 5. This local law shall take effect immediately.
